

Sakila would like to a dimensional model built for reporting purposes. They would like to be able to easily see rentals by film, category, language, country, city, store, and over time. They are interested in knowing rental counts, payments for rentals, and rental durations. Build a star schema dimensional model for them that will help accomplish this.

